ASTHMA HOME MANAGEMENT - PEDIATRIC PLAN OF CARE

| YELLOW ZONE  You have signs of an asthma attack. Avoid triggers and take action to get control. | If you are in the YELLOW ZONE,  continue to take your green zone medications and the RESCUE medication NOW. | If RESCUE medication is needed every 4 -6 hours for more than 24 hours:  Call PCP |
| :---: | :---: | :---: |
| CAUTION  EARLY SIGNS OF ASTHMA | Rescue Medications:  - Albuterol 2 puffs with spacer | Increase:  - Flovent 110 mcg with spacer 2 puff(s) 2 times a day  While continuing to take your rescue medications every 4-6 hours. Continue this plan for 7-10 days. |
| - Waking at night due to asthma  - First sign of a cold  - Can do some, but not all, usual activities | Repeat every 4-6 hours as needed. | If asthma signs get worse, go to the RED ZONE |

| RED ZONE - DANGER!  This is an EMERGENCY! GET HELP NOW!  DANGER  LATE SIGNS OF ASTHMA  - Rescue medications not helping  - Constant cough  - Very short of breath  - Trouble walking or talking  - Nasal flaring or retractions | IF YOU ARE IN THE RED ZONE,  TAKE THIS MEDICATION NOW:  Rescue Medications:  - Albuterol 4 puffs with spacer  You may repeat RESCUE medication every $\mathbf{2 0}$ minutes for up to 1 hour, if needed. | Next:  Call your doctor for further instructions.  Call PCP  CALL 911 OR  GO TO THE  EMERGENCY ROOM  IF ASTHMA SIGNS ARE NOT IMPROVING |
| :---: | :---: | :---: |

Patient is able to self administer medications at sch-
Plan of Care reviewed with the patient and caregiv

